2015 Health Literacy Leadership Institute

GLOBAL HEALTH LITERACY

Fellows Forum

Taking place on the final day of the 2015 Health Literacy Leadership Institute, the Fellows Forum is dedicated to a current topic of interest in the Health Literacy field. Co-sponsored by the Tufts Center for Global Public Health, this year’s topic is Global Health Literacy. This one-day Forum June 12th is open to all researchers and practitioners interested in 1) defining health literacy in a global context, 2) considering international health literacy research and best-practice, and 3) discussing application and ideas for future direction in global health communication.

The Institute

Offered through the Health Communication Program at Tufts University School of Medicine, this one-week Institute June 8 – 12, 2015 is designed for working professionals and students committed to improving health literacy in the U.S. and around the world. For more information visit: go.tufts.edu/summerinstitute

SAVE THE DATE
June 12, 2015
9 am – 4 pm
Tufts School of Medicine
145 Harrison Avenue
Sackler Building, Room 114
Boston, MA 02111
Downtown Boston
Cost: $50

“Many people have very little formal education. Global health researchers understand the link between health and literacy. We just don’t call it health literacy.”

Dr. Mwamburi, Director,
Tufts Center for Global Public Health
publichealth.tufts.edu/cgph

LEARN MORE

go.tufts.edu/summerinstitute

To register, click on Health Literacy Leadership then Fellows Forum

Course Director
Sabrina Kurtz-Rossi
sabrina.kurtz_rossi@tufts.edu

Co-sponsored by Tufts Center for Global Public Health: publichealth.tufts.edu/cgph